He wakes up at 6:30, takes a shower, gets dressed, has some breakfast and checks his phone.

At 7:30 he is ready to go to school. He drives to university district in Seattle and gets to class at 8:30.

He stays on campus until noon. Then he grabs some lunch, browse over his social media for a while and then drives downtown to get to work at 2pm.

He works at Apple store from 2 to 7. He helps customers with all kinds of Apple products. Sometimes he needs to stay a little longer but usually he's ready to go home at 7:15.
